

IPA Symposia are 90 minutes long and typically include three to four presentations. Please plan your submission based upon the allocated time frame.

The overview of the submitted symposium should be approximately 500 words long. The abstract for each presentation should be approximately 500-750 words.

You may also choose to include images and tables but they are not required.

Interdem Participants Santiago de Compostella Participants

Name	Country	Present IPA Conference 26-29 September 2010	Title presentation
Marika Boer	Netherlands	Yes	Advance directives for euthanasia: Feasibility in dementia care practice.
Rose-Marie Droës	Netherlands	Yes	- "Evaluation of the Dementelcoach project; telephone coaching for carers of home living people with dementia" and - "Imagination as a care method on psychogeriatric wards of nursing homes".
Ulla Eloniemi-Sulkava	Finland	Yes	'Effects of trigger approach in treating dementia people with BPSD' (quality indicators and new developments in psychosocial interventions).
Andrea Fabbo	Italy	Yes
Steve Iliffe	UK	Yes	Psychogeriatrics in Primary Care
Manuel Franco	Spain	Yes	Clinical trial design about usefulness of technologies for physical and cognitive stimulation. Long Lasting Memories Project.
Jill Manthorpe	UK	Yes	'Risk enabling in dementia support'
Franka Meiland	Netherlands	Yes	Development of assistive technology in dementia (the ROSETTA project). Two posters from our research group (one on telephone coaching by professional carers: the Dementelcoach project, and one on the imagination method; a new approach for caregivers of people with dementia in nursing homes).
Esmé Moniz-Cook Katie (RA Esmé)	UK	Yes	Cochrane review of Challenging behaviour
Martin Orrell	UK	Yes	1) Cochrane Review on Cognitive Stimulation (Bob is the lead but he is agreeable for me to present it) 2) Cochrane Review on Case Management (may be either me or one of the other authors as presenter)

Anne Margriet Pot	Netherlands	Yes	Three symposia: e-mental health for family caregivers of people with dementia; small group living for people with dementia; reminiscence therapy And a presentation on psychiatric disorders in older adults and the relationship with comorbidity.
Henriëtte van der Roest	Netherlands	Yes	Between advance directives, palliative care, and mortality in a terminal care population in nursing homes in the Netherlands'.
Joanna Rymaszweska	Poland	Yes
Aimee Spector	UK	Yes	Using a Biopsychosocial model of dementia as a tool to guide clinical practice
Paivi Topo	Finland	Yes	'Dementia in the media in Finland in 1970-2008 - practices of disclosure' (disclosure and stigma symposium)
Ingun Ulstein	Norway	Yes	Carer burden and Expressed Emotion (using FMSS and a self administration questionnaire)
Frans Verhey	Netherlands	Yes	Two presentations (at elast, when they are accepted): one on the developments of memory Clinics in the Netherlands, the other on treatment options for apathy in people with dementia
Bob Woods	UK	No, other symposium
Myrra Vernooij	NL	Yes	European quality indicators for psychosocial interventions
Marjolein de Vugt	Netherlands	No, other symposium	Caregiver research with a presentation on decision making in dementia.

Proposed Symposia

Interdem Participants Santiago de Compostella, symposium Cognitive stimulation

Name	Country	Present IPA Conference 26-29 September 2010	Title presentation
Rose-Marie Droës	Netherlands	Yes	- "Evaluation of the Dementel coach project; telephone coaching for carers of home living people with dementia"
Manuel Franco	Spain	Yes	Clinical trial design about usefulness of technologies for physical and cognitive stimulation. Long Lasting Memories Project.
Martin Orrell	UK		Cochrane Review on Cognitive Stimulation

Interdem Participants Santiago de Compostella, symposium Quality improvement in services

Name	Country	Present IPA Conference 26-29 September 2010	Title presentation
Steve Iliffe	UK	Yes	Psychogeriatrics in Primary Care
Ulla Eloniemi-Sulkava	Finland	Yes	'Effects of trigger approach in treating dementia people with BPSD' (quality indicators and new developments in psychosocial interventions).
Myrra Vernooij	NL	Yes	European quality indicators for psychosocial interventions
Aimee Spector	UK	Yes	Using a Biopsychosocial model of dementia as a tool to guide clinical practice

Interdem Participants Santiago de Compostella, symposium New psychosocial interventions

Marika Boer	Netherlands	Yes	Advance directives for euthanasia: Feasibility in dementia care practice.
Jill Manthorpe	UK	Yes	'Risk enabling in dementia support'
Henriëtte van der Roest	Netherlands	Yes	Between advance directives, palliative care, and mortality in a terminal care population in nursing homes in the Netherlands'.
Rose-Marie Droës	Netherlands	Yes	- "Imagination as a care method on psychogeriatric wards of nursing homes".

Interdem Participants Santiago de Compostella, symposium Challenges in dementia care

Esmé Moniz-Cook Katie (RA Esmé)	UK	Yes	Cochrane review of Challenging behaviour
Ingun Ulstein	Norway	Yes	Carer burden and Expressed Emotion (using FMSS and a self administration questionnaire)
Frans Verhey	Netherlands	Yes	Treatment options for apathy in people with dementia
Martin Orrell	UK	Yes	Cochrane Review Case Management